

Five Star Winery in James Halliday's 2008 Australian Wine Companion

"Long recognised for the perfume and delicacy of its white wines, but not always hitting the bullseye. There have been a number of changes at home base, and these are reflected in the extreme quality of the of the current wines"

Three five star wines and eight four and a half star wines:

2006 Sylvia Riesling	95 points
2005 Late Picked	94 points
2005 Gewurztraminer	94 points
2005 VS Riesling	93 points
2004 Shiraz	92 points
2006 Riesling	91 points
2005 Unwooded Chardonnay	91 points
2006 Pinot gris	90 points
2006 DMH Gewurztraminer	90 points
2006 Sauvignon blanc	90 points
2004 Devil's River	90 points

2006 Sauvignon blanc:

Top Gold Medal Class 6 and Trophy for Best Sauvignon blanc at 2007 Winewise Small Vignerons Awards (Australian & NZ wineries crushing less than 400 tonnes)

2006 Sylvia Riesling:

In James Halliday's Top 100 Wines, The Weekend Australian Magazine, 10th November 2007

2006 Polly Sparkling Gewurztraminer:

David Bray writing in the "The Independent" on 31st October 2007;

"And so to Delatite, best known to your reporter for lovely Rieslings. Here's Polly 2006, a sparkling Gewurztraminer ($29)

You're not likely to have seen one like this, with lovely lychee/rosewater tastes and a pleasant clear, dry finish.

To quote the maker 'The sparkling wine to have when you know what you want and want something different.' Well said"